COMES NOW ALYSSA MALONE, PROBATION OFFICER OF THE COURT, presenting an official report upon the conduct and attitude of Kurt Andall, who was placed on supervision by the Honorable Christina Reiss sitting in the Court at Burlington, on the 30 day of September, 2014, who fixed the period of supervision at four years, and imposed the general terms and conditions theretofore adopted by the Court and also imposed special conditions and terms as follows:

You must participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for substance abuse, which program may include testing to determine whether you have reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. You shall contribute to the cost of services rendered in an amount to be determined by the probation officer based on ability to pay or the availability of third party payment. You must refrain from the use of alcohol and other intoxicants during and after treatment.

You must submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. Section 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
